JUVENILE JUSTICE AND YOUTH DEVELOPMENT POLICY BOARD VACANCIES

Johnson County, Iowa – The Johnson County Board of Supervisors announces six vacancies on the Johnson County Juvenile Justice and Youth Development Policy Board. The Board is looking for a representative of law enforcement to serve one unexpired term beginning immediately and expiring September 30, 2018. The remaining vacancies are for three-year terms beginning October 1, 2017 and expiring September 30, 2020: two vacancies for persons categorized as “business, parents, residents or youth,” two vacancies for representatives from social service agencies; and one vacancy for a representative of juvenile court.

Duties of the Policy Board include, but are not limited to, the following: spearhead the development of countywide prevention, intervention, and sanctions services coordination; oversee the development of assessment and monitoring systems; review strategic planning and monitor progress of projects; brief the community on the value of asset-building by talking to local groups and engaging in other promotional activities; promote activities that are designed to raise assets in youth; provide and develop funding for asset-building programs in the community; and act as a source of information and communication conduit for various groups and individuals interested in participating in projects.

Application forms are available on the Committee/Board Openings webpage of the official Johnson County website, www.johnson-county.com/vacancies and in the office of the Johnson County Board of Supervisors, second floor of the Johnson County Administration Building, 913 South Dubuque Street, Iowa City.

Completed applications must be returned to the Board Office by 4:30 p.m. on Monday, September 4, 2017.
