FOOD POLICY COUNCIL VACANCY

Johnson County, Iowa – The Johnson County Board of Supervisors announces one vacancy on the Johnson County Food Policy Council for an unexpired term beginning immediately and ending June 30, 2021.

The purpose of the Council is to improve dialogue and discussion and provide necessary advice on food and agriculture issues to the County, municipalities, community boards, local agencies, nongovernmental organizations, businesses, and other interested groups. The Council addresses food system issues in the county, including the development of strategic goals, data-gathering, research projects, and policies to address food system issues.

Representation from the following categories is preferred, but not required: Anti-hunger advocates; Education and outreach; Farmer/Rancher; Land Use and Conservation/Planning; Registered Dietitian/Physician; Food Safety Specialists; Realtor/Developer/Housing; Restaurant/Institution; or Food Distribution/Processing.

Qualified applicants need to be eligible electors of Johnson County.

Application forms are available on the Committee/Board Openings webpage of the official Johnson County website, www.johnson-county.com/vacancies and in the office of the Johnson County Board of Supervisors, second floor of the Johnson County Administration Building, 913 South Dubuque Street, Iowa City.

Completed applications must be returned to the Board Office by 4:30 p.m. on Friday, August 25, 2017.
