Presidents Day hours announced for Johnson County offices

Johnson County, Iowa — Most Johnson County governmental offices will be closed Monday, Feb. 19, in observance of Presidents Day.

Mental Health and Disability Services (MHDS), as well as Johnson County Social Services, will remain open and be available during their regular business hours of 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

No Johnson County SEATS paratransit buses will run rural routes on Monday. Check individual city websites for their hours.

Emergency services remain available 365 days a year. In an emergency, residents should always dial 911.

The Johnson County Sheriff's Office Administrative, Civil, and Records divisions will be closed. All other services will operate as normal and be available for routine and emergency response. Johnson County Ambulance service will also be available for routine and emergency response. Its billing and administrative offices will be closed.
