FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THIRD UPDATE: THE JOHNSON COUNTY AUDITOR, COUNTY ATTORNEY, PLANNING AND ZONING, AND COUNTY CONSERVATION BOARD OFFICES ARE OPEN TODAY, MOST OFFICES ARE CLOSED DUE TO THE WEATHER

The Auditor's Office is open regular hours today from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. Travel is not recommended. Iowa City buses will resume service at Noon today (Wednesday) but on the Saturday bus schedule. Please call (319)-356-6004 if you must travel to the office to ensure that your Auditor's Office need can be addressed, as staff is limited. The Planning and Zoning Office is also open in the County Administration Building. All other offices in the Administration Building (913 S. Dubuque St.) are closed due to weather. These include Treasurer, Recorder, Medical Examiner, Human Resources, Board of Supervisors, City Assessor, and County Assessor. All offices in the adjoining Health and Human Services Building are closed due to weather. These offices include Information Technology, GIS/Mapping, Mental Health/Disability Services, Public Health, Social Services/General Assistance and Veterans Affairs.

The Johnson County Conservation Board Office is open today.

Johnson County Courthouse: The County Attorney's Office is open today, but the Courts and Clerk of Court are closed.

The Johnson County Planning and Zoning Office is also open today.

As usual, dial 911 if you are having an emergency.
