Subject: Letter of Support for Janelle Rettig

Dear Vacancy Committee Members:

I write this letter in strong support of Janelle Rettig's application for consideration as an applicant to fill the vacancy on the Johnson County Board of Supervisors.

Janelle is smart. She is a hard worker, good question asker and listener. She will do her homework and listen to all viewpoints in tackling the challenges facing our county. Her experience operating a small business will help as a member of the board. Janelle understands budgets. As a member the Iowa Natural Resource Commission, she has done an excellent job of bringing needed oversight to important state projects.

Janelle has been involved in our community. She has been a key volunteer in a variety of local organizations working to address issues of interest to the Board of Supervisors and local residents. She had worked on land use planning, civil and human rights, environmental and conservation issues, and has worked to make local government more open and responsive.

I think she would make an excellent Johnson County Supervisor.

Respectfully submitted,

Joe Bolkcom
