

Good Citizenship Pays!

Pollworkers Needed

The Johnson County Auditor's Office accepts applications for election day pollworkers on an ongoing basis. This is an important and exciting way to participate in democracy. Pollworkers receive compensation for their time.

★ Who can be a pollworker:

- You must be registered to vote in Johnson County, Iowa.
- You must be able to read and write English.
- You must have transportation to the polling place and to the Pollworker School of Instruction.
- You must not be a candidate or a close relative of a candidate whose name appears on the ballot.

★ How to become a pollworker:

- Contact our office at 913 S. Dubuque Street in Iowa City, or phone 356-6004 to apply. Office hours are 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.
- Attend a training school prior to the election. You are paid for attending the school.

★ What a pollworker does:

- Reports to work at the polling place before the polls open on election day (Usually 6:00 a.m.).
- Prepares the polling place for voting.
- Verifies that voters are registered in the precinct.
- Assists voters in the voting process.
- Maintains order at the polls.
- Closes polling location when polls close (9:00 p.m. for General Elections and 8:00 p.m. for others) and remains until all closing procedures have been done (usually an hour after the polls close).
- Earns $10.00 per hour, plus time and a half ($15.00) for any hours that exceed more than eight in a day.
