RELEASE IMMEDIATELY

11:00 IOWA CITY TURNOUT REMAINS LOWEST IN 30 YEARS

Iowa City turnout remains at its lowest level in at least 30 years. As of 11:00 AM, only 933 Iowa City voters (1.93%) have gone to the polls. In 1985, which saw the lowest turnout in the past 30 years, 1,108 voters had gone to the polls by 11:00.

Other Johnson County cities are seeing higher levels of voting. As of 11:00, University Heights continues to have the highest percentage turnout, with 105 voters (13.17%) at the polls.

Today, voters may only vote in the precinct where they live. The regular polling place is listed in the lower left corner of voter cards. Polls are open until 8 PM. Voters can register and vote on Election Day, with a photo ID and proof of address.

For questions about voting, please contact the Johnson County Auditor's Office, 319-356-6004, or visit the Auditor's website at www.jcauditor.com.
