| 2. | Introductions   | Question to board members: What are the signs of spring that we are seeing?Shawn Meaney has stepped down and we are working to fill his position   |                            |  |  |
| 3. | MinutesApproval   | Motion to approve February minutes by Jill Irvin, seconded by Will KappApproved unanimously  |                            |  |  |
| 4. | InfrastructureDiscussion  | Members read an article about the proliferation of 'Ghost Kitchens' - restaurants that operate in other restaurant's kitchens that are available mostly through takeout or delivery - during the pandemic that asked whether they would become a part of the restaurant economy going forward. Members met one-on-one in breakout rooms to discuss their views on their article. Although this discussion was led by the Infrastructure working group, members were still asked to think about the future of ghost kitchens with an equity lens. |                            |  |  |
|    |   | <ul> <li>Should thinking about facilitation of the use and sharing of ghost kitchens be a goal forFPC in the future?</li> </ul>   |                            |  |  |
| 5. | Presentationand Q&A -Maysa Ahmed,Epidemiologistwith Johnson | Ahmed presented on "Food Health Access and Public Health". The presentation's overall goal was to link issues in a food system to negative health outcomes for individuals in communities. A large part of Ahmed's focus was a discussion around redefining terms. What are the different kinds of "food insecurity"? What, if anything, does data that simply measures "food insecurity"  |                            |  |  |

|    | County PublicHealth                                     | actually do for public health experts? How can we understand data in a more nuanced way to impact communities?   |  |  |  |
