Johnson County Food Policy Council vacancy

Johnson County, Iowa – The Johnson County Board of Supervisors announces four vacancies on the Johnson County Food Policy Council for terms beginning upon appointment and ending June 30, 2024.

The purpose of the council is to improve dialogue and discussion and provide necessary advice on food and agriculture issues to the County, municipalities, community boards, local agencies, nongovernmental organizations, businesses and other interested groups. The council addresses food system issues in the county, including the development of strategic goals, data-gathering, research projects and policies to address food system issues.

Representation from the following categories is preferred, but not required: anti-hunger advocates; education and outreach; farmer/rancher; land use and conservation/planning; registered dietitian/physician; food safety specialists; realtor/developer/housing; restaurant/institution; or food distribution/processing.

The council meets at 6 p.m. on the third Monday of the month. Members are also assigned to working groups and sub-committees that meet in addition to the regular meeting. Working groups are created based on priorities decided by the council.

Application forms are available on the Committee/Board Openings webpage of the Johnson County website at www.johnson-county.com/vacancies and in the office of the Johnson County Board of Supervisors, second floor of the Johnson County Administration Building, 913 S. Dubuque Street, Iowa City.

Completed applications must be returned to the Board of Supervisors Office by 4:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 5, 2020.
